

NEWSLETTER

Message from Dr. Ben Karenzi Chief Executive Officer, RBS

June has been a month of meaningful engagement for RBS across the continent. Our leadership strengthened partnerships with key institutions, reaffirming our commitment to technical excellence, market development, and regional collaboration.

Our participation in the ATIDI Annual General Meetings, alongside engagements with ZEP-RE and WAICA Re, reflects our dedication to advancing reinsurance capacity and supporting sustainable growth within Rwanda and the region. I extend my appreciation to Group MD & CEO Hope Murera for ZEP-RE's continued partnership and support.

As we move into July, RBS remains focused on expanding our continental footprint, enhancing specialist risk capabilities, and contributing to a resilient insurance ecosystem.

Africa Re 50th Anniversary Celebrations

RBS participated in the Africa Re 50th Anniversary celebrations, where Deputy CEO Mrs Annette Karenzi joined industry leaders in marking five decades of continental impact, resilience, and collaboration. The event provided a platform to reflect on Africa Re's contribution to strengthening reinsurance capacity across the continent and to engage in discussions on emerging trends shaping the sector.

Celebrating continental milestones in reinsurance.

RBS & ATIDI Strategic Engagement in Abuja

During a high-level engagement in Abuja, Deputy CEO Mrs Annette Karenzi met with ATIDI CEO Manuel Moses to discuss opportunities for deepening collaboration in political risk and trade credit insurance. The meeting reaffirmed RBS's commitment to supporting Rwanda's market through strategic partnerships and regional cooperation.

RBS PARTNERSHIPS

RBS continues to maintain strong partnerships with leading African and global reinsurers, including:

- Lloyd's
- Africa Trade and Investment Development Agency (ATIDI)
- Africa Re
- ZEP-RE
- Continental Re
- Ghana Re
- WAICA Re
- Aon Africa

These partnerships enable fast treaty and facultative placements on competitive terms.

Reaffirming commitment to market development.

RBS CEO at ATIDI Annual General Meetings (Nairobi)

RBS was honoured to participate in the ATIDI Annual General Meetings held in Nairobi. The RBS CEO met with ATIDI CEO Manuel Moses for discussions focused on strengthening partnerships within the Rwanda market and advancing sustainable growth. The AGM provided an important platform for dialogue on trade, investment, and risk-mitigation strategies across Africa.

CEO Visit to ZEP-RE Headquarters (Nairobi)

The RBS CEO visited ZEP-RE Headquarters in Nairobi, where he held strategic discussions with COO Mr Jephitha Gwatipedza. The meeting reaffirmed the longstanding partnership between RBS and ZEP-RE and explored opportunities for capacity building, knowledge sharing, and market development within the regional insurance and reinsurance landscape.

RBS CEO Dr Ben Karenzi with Group MD & CEO Hope Murera

Message from the Deputy Chief Executive Officer Mrs Annette Karenzi

June has been a dynamic period of engagement for RBS. Our participation in the Africa Re 50th Anniversary celebrations and strategic discussions with ATIDI leadership in Abuja provided valuable opportunities to strengthen partnerships and explore emerging trends shaping the insurance and reinsurance landscape. Our engagements with regional CEOs and industry leaders underscore RBS's role in fostering collaboration, innovation, and technical advancement. As we enter July, we look forward to continued capacity building, meaningful partnerships, and contributing to the continent's evolving insurance ecosystem.

CEO Appreciation to Hope Murera (ZEP-RE) at ATIDI AGM

On the sidelines of the ATIDI Annual General Meetings, the RBS CEO expressed gratitude to Group MD & CEO Hope Murera for ZEP-RE's continued strategic partnership and support. The exchange reaffirmed the strong institutional relationship between RBS and ZEP-RE and highlighted shared efforts to advance reinsurance capacity and sustainable growth in the Rwanda market.

CEO Courtesy Visit to WAICA Re Kenya

WAICA Re Kenya welcomed the RBS CEO for a courtesy visit, during which he met with CEO Mr Charles Etemesi and senior technical leadership. Discussions focused on strengthening collaboration, exploring strategic opportunities, and reaffirming a shared commitment to delivering value to the insurance and reinsurance industry.

Enhancing executive-level cooperation and insight.

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES

RBS will be participating in a series of high-level industry engagements over the coming weeks, strengthening partnerships and expanding our continental footprint.

ATIDI Annual General Meetings

A leadership engagement with Ghana Reinsurance PLC to strengthen regional collaboration.

ATIDI Annual General Meetings

Nairobi, Kenya — 1–4 July 2026 RBS CEO will participate in the ATIDI Annual General Meetings, engaging with senior leaders on trade, investment, and risk-mitigation strategies across Africa.

52nd Africa Insurance Organisation (AIO) Conference

Cairo, Egypt — 4–10 July 2026 RBS leadership will join continental executives to discuss emerging trends, innovation, and opportunities shaping Africa's insurance markets.

Specialist Risk Market Training

Kigali, Rwanda — 25 July 2026 In partnership with Africa Specialty Risks (ASR), RBS will host a specialist-risk training session focused on complex risk solutions and market development.

RIBO 5th Annual Conference

August 2026 RBS will participate in the RIBO 5th Annual Conference, joining regional brokers and industry leaders to explore market trends, regulatory developments, and collaborative opportunities within the reinsurance ecosystem.

Liberation Day, 4th July

RBS joins the nation in commemorating Rwanda's Liberation Day, honouring the resilience, courage, and sacrifice that restored unity and hope. As we reflect on this historic milestone, we reaffirm our commitment to contributing to Rwanda's continued progress, stability, and development.

RBS to mark Rwanda's Liberation Day, celebrating unity and resilience.